Domestic Cleaning in Northcote That Fits Real Life

innercitymaids.com.au

Northcote's mix of Californian bungalows, terraces and new apartments all collect the same everyday mess, dust along the skirting boards, footprints across the floors, a kitchen bench that never stays clear for long. Fitting a proper clean into a working week is where most households lose the battle, no matter how organised the to-do list looks.

Inner City Maids provides domestic cleaning that Northcote residents can book around their own schedule rather than the other way round. Each visit is carried out by the same familiar cleaner. This is so the home is looked after by someone who already knows how it likes to be kept, week after week. All without having to repeat the same instructions twice.

What Happens During Every Visit?

Every clean centres on bathrooms, kitchen surfaces, floors and dusting, the tasks that make the biggest visible difference between a lived-in home and a genuinely tidy one. Whether the visit is a Regular Clean on a set day each fortnight or a more thorough Deep Clean ahead of an inspection, the same attention goes into every room, and products are supplied as part of the service.

- Bathrooms scrubbed from tile to tap
- Floors vacuumed and mopped throughout
- Kitchen benches, sinks and surfaces wiped down
- Dusting across shelves, sills and furniture

Why Northcote Choose Our Domestic Cleaning Service?

- Vetted and police-checked cleaners
- Regular, fortnightly, once off and deep cleans all available
- Simple, transparent hourly rates with no hidden extras
- A local team already familiar with Northcote's mix of homes
